Make your student debt work for you

Don’t forget—you’re eligible for [WI_SDR_PLAN_NAME], a great benefit that lets your employer count your student loan payments toward your retirement match. It can help you:

- Jump-start your retirement savings if you can’t contribute to your plan
- Boost or max out your match if you are contributing
- Balance paying down debt today with saving for tomorrow

Remember, payments only count after you join—so why wait?

Already getting your full match? You may not need this benefit today. If you're unable to meet your match in the future and are still paying student loans, consider enrolling at that time.
