Keep up the great work
saving for retirement.
Reenroll now.

As a participant in [WI_SDR_PLAN_NAME], you've been making those student loan payments work harder for you. Now it's time to keep that momentum going by reenrolling in your program. It's the last time you'll need to do so.

What's staying the same:

- You'll still receive your student debt match payment after the plan year ends.

What's changing:

- If you contribute to your retirement account, you'll receive your regular employer match according to your plan rules, while any additional student debt match payments will be made after the plan year ends.
- This is the last time you'll need to reenroll in the program.

Keep your retirement savings going in the right direction.
